THE TUTOR OF A ROYAL PRINCE

Tells of Lost Vigour Restored when all other Remedies failed.

The gravest care is always taken, and the most searching investigation made, in choosing anyone to whom is entrusted the education of a Prince of a Royal House. Such a tutor is expected to educate almost as much by the force of personal example as by rules and exercises. An onerous and important duty devolved upon Professor Arthur Dale, M.N.S.C., some time Private Instructor to Prince Alexander G. of Teck. The statement of that soldier carries with it a weight which admits of no question. Not only does the officer give the striking account of his own experience as to the extraordinary effect of Mer-Syren Powders, but he puts his experience into practice by introducing this marvellous restorative into the British Army. Read his words for yourself:—

The Mer-Syren Co.,

17, Cockspur Street, S.W.

Aldershot, November 23rd, 1909.

Dear Sirs,—As an Instructor to His Majesty's Forces at Aldershot, and Private Instructor to Prince Alexander G. of Teck, I have very great pleasure in testifying to the extraordinary tonic effect Mer-Syren Powders have on the system. After personally testing the Powders, I immediately decided to introduce them in the Army, and the effect on the general physique of every soldier who has followed my advice has been extraordinary. Mer-Syren Powders are marvellously effective in toning up the system, and the result of taking the Powders has, to my certain knowledge, been extremely beneficial in every case of NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA AND BILIOUSNESS, and has also restored lost vigour and health when every other remedy has failed.—Yours faithfully,

(Signed) ARTHUR DALE, M.N.S.C.

Mer-Syren Powders

The Instantaneous Remedy.

The World-Famed Natural Restorative.

A cure and a tonic. Contains no drugs. Absolutely tasteless and odourless. Not a purgative. Acts like a charm upon the digestive organs, restoring activity and vitality, and correcting all derangements. Upon the digestion depend the health and vigour of the whole body. If the digestion is right—flesh, bone, blood, nerve and brain work healthily and in harmony. Mer-Syren acts mechanically upon the organs of digestion and assimilation, washing them and toning them to natural activity.

WATER TIGHT.

INSECT PROOF.

A great improvement on the Old Tinned Uniform Cases and Chests. Invaluable to Officers of His Majesty's Army. Linen Chests, P. & O. Cabin Trunks, Uniform Cases, and all kinds of Air-Tight Trunks for India, the Colonies and Home use.

The "MARSHALL" UNIFORM CASE.

The Ideal Case for India, China and the Colonies. Painted dark lead colour and fitted with Sliding Division for Helmet and Rings for Sword.

ADVANTAGES of these TRUNKS & CHESTS.

They are much Stronger and Lighter than the old pattern, the wood used being a Four-ply Birch, joined together with a Waterproof Cement, thus making it impervious to shrinkage or splitting. They are bound together with Strong Iron Plates, and varnished or painted dark lead colour. The interior is lined with Zinc, and fitted with a hollow Vulcanized Rubber Tubing (which is guaranteed imperishable), closing on to the sides and ends of chests, which forms the embushment, making a great saving of space, the inside being perfectly straight. The Locks, Butts and Handles are of the best quality and finish.

The "MARSHALL" CABIN TRUNK.
